

Melissa

(Song Lyrics)

I know sometime it's hard to smile.
But even through your pain
I see Jesus
Every time I see you
It's His love that shines
And everyone believes He lives in you

I can see Jesus on your face
And I can see He's real
By how real is your faith
And in the hard times
Your faith remains so true
Oh Melissa I wrote this song for you

Don't you know we're praying for you
We all know He is carrying you

You know I'm praying for your strength
And you need to find
God's hope on the way
His everlasting arms are holding you
Even when strength has failed
He's holding on to you

Don't you know He's praying for you
We all know He is carrying you

When you are hurting when in pain
You don't hesitate to speak His name
He feels your pain
He hurts the same
He knows it all
So now rest in the shadow of His wings

Hallelujah, Oh Hallelujah
Now we know He was praying for you
Hallelujah, Oh Hallelujah
Safely home, He has carried you through

Hallelujah, Oh Hallelujah
Now we know He has carried you through
Hallelujah, Oh Hallelujah
In His arms, you made it home
Hallelujah

He knows you
He holds you
He loves you more than words can say
He sees you
He heals you
His love will never fade away
